Services

REGRANTING

The Illinois Arts Council designated TRAC as a regional regranting agency in 1981. Since that time TRAC has administered the Arts Access Programs in west-central Illinois.

WORKSHOPS

TRAC sponsors several workshops each year in various locations throughout the region. Recent workshops have covered topics like “Memories to Memoirs”, Everything You Wanted to Know About Not-for-Profits”, and “Grant Writing for the Arts”.

NEWSLETTER

TRAC publishes a quarterly newsletter that includes a calendar of regional events and articles covering the activities of local artists and organizations.

FIELD DEPOT

TRAC distributes Illinois Arts Council information and materials and provides technical assistance in their use.

NETWORKING

TRAC, in cooperation with the Performing Artists Network, publishes the Artists Register/Resource Book, a regional listing of artists and organizations in west-central Illinois. TRAC also sponsors several “Meet & Greet” gatherings each year. These are informal events where people with an interest in the arts and culture have a chance to get to know each other.
